

NoRopeRetreat Alternative:

Milan Bondage and Sightseeing Week

As you already heard, in 2022 there will be no RopeRetreat. We worked really hard to come up with a different location, but the bottom line is, we were too late. Actually, locations are like suspension points: The goods ones are occupied really fast!

For 2023, there are options, and we're confident we'll be able to organize a totally new edition of the RopeRetreat in 2023. We hope to meet you there!

However, in the meantime, we've got an alternative for you. You might want to read on!

The concept

You are given the opportunity to attend a 'workshop week' in Milan, with Kirigami & Tenshiko. During that week, different events will be organized, allowing you to explore the city and the surroundings, and the wonderful area and summer that Milan has to offer. You are responsible for your own staying facilities, but these are easily available in Milan, ranging from hotels to BnB to camping, to 'people you may know in the area'.

You take part in the common events as you like, or skip them if you feel like doing so.

However, it is mandatory that you subscribe to the events, so we know how many will attend with regard to preparation / reservation / ...

The dates

This week is organized 2 times

Episode 1: Monday 04/07/2022 - Sunday 10/07/2022

Episode 2: Monday 18/07/2022 - Sunday 24/07/2022

IMPORTANT:

- You can book the week/episode you prefer, but please be aware that each week will only be organized with 6 couples at least.
- If this is not met until May 15th, one of the two weeks will be canceled, and the attendees will be proposed to join the other week or refunded.

How this works

For some events, there is a price. You pay for this week:

- The sum of the prices of the events you're attending. If you subscribe, we assume you'll be there. We cannot offer refunds on the spot, due to reservations already made.
- €15 per person as a membership fee to the Yugen Studio. This is mandatory for taking workshops (legal stuff).

General remarks

- All locations and events are easily reachable by public transport (metro usually). Interesting week tickets are available.
- If you signed up for an event / meeting, make sure to be there, and be on time. Let us know if you cannot make it last minute, so the rest of the group doesn't have to wait for you :-)
